ABOUT THE STATE

The freight business of the Rutland railroad has picked up recently in a marked degree.

The janitor's house at the Bennington battle monument is in an advanced stage of completion. The structure is of handsome design. The cost of the building, including the grading of the grounds will be $6,000.

Collector of Customs C. H. Darling, of Burlington, and United States Senator W. P. Dillingham, of Waterbury, are passing the week in Washington, D.
C., on business. Senator Dillingham will return home this week to remain until Congress convenes in December.

The annual meeting of the New England Pat Men's club will be held at Hale's Tavern, Wells River, Friday afternoon, December 18, followed by a banquet in the evening. Distinguished speakers will be engaged for the after-dinner exercises. The membership of the club exceeds eleven hundred.

The Bennington free library has bought a part of the library of the late Charles M. Bliss of that town.
The works include many of the hisories of the Revolution, which have some bearing on the early history of Bennington, and also biographies of men who had a large part in the upbuilding of the infant state of Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Phelps of Dorset, observed their fifty-sixth wedding anniversary Tuesday evening. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Root of East Ripton, members of the original wedding party, who celebrated their fifty-eighth anniversary October 20.
Mr. and Mrs. Phelps have lived in Dorset ever since their marriage in 1842.
Mr. Phelps is 82 years of age and his wife is 75, both being in good health.

The Burlington high school closed Wednesday the most successful foot ball season in the school's history. The team has played seven games with a score of 147 points and has not been scored upon. Every team which was played was better than the B. H. S. team but good hard practice, line spirit, and superior coaching gave the team advantage over her rivals. The state championship was again defeated when Goddard seminary, Barre, was defeated in a game played at Burlington by a score of 15 to 0.

FALLS INTO FORTUNE.

Learns He's Heir to $100,000 an Hour After He Enlists.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—An hour after James L. Dixon was sworn in as a recruit in the United States Marine corps yesterday he was apprised that his father had died and left him $100,000.
Dixon said he would "stick for the big show," and prepared to go to the Marine barracks in Washington, just as if he had never heard of the $100,000.

Annel C. Dixon, the father, was a merchant tailor at San Francisco.

DEATH OF MRS. J. D. FOLSON.

St. Johnsbury, Nov. 14.—Mrs. J. D.
Folson, widow of a former prominent physician of this county, died here yesterday morning. She was born April 18, 1828, and was the daughter of C. C.
Newell of East Burke. She is survived by a son, Irving J. Folson, and two daughters, Mrs. E. G. Bundy and Mrs.
W. J. Aldrich, all of this place.

Mr. Patrick Leonard.

In the nature of a release from suffering was the death, Wednesday, at her home on Portland street of Mrs. Patrick Leonard. Death followed eight months' torture suffering with sciatic rheumatism that was borne until her nervous energy was exhausted, with remarkable bravery.
Her frail body was endowed with wonderful energy and her splendid mental faculties were retained almost to the last. She was a woman of remarkable resources and on the lives of all who knew her well she has left the impress of a strong, true, Christian life.

Solemn high mass was celebrated at St. Aloysius church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, and she was laid to rest in Mt. St. Joseph cemetery.

Bridget Horgan was born in the county of Tipperary, Ireland, seventy-six years ago. In her childhood her parents removed to Lawrence, Mass., and there on May 27, 1855, she was married to Patrick Leonard, of St. Johnsbury.

At the funeral six grandsons of the deceased acted as bearers, Leonard Tierney, Henry Brown, Frank Nelson, James Nelson, Harry Bonnet of Barre, and Carl Leonard of St. Johnsbury. A profusion of beautiful flowers spoke of the sympathy of many loving friends.

A large number of out of town relatives attended the funeral. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Brown, Henry Brown, Miss Helen Brown, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bonnett, Harry Bonnett, Miss Basile Bonnett, Mrs. Margaret Nelson, James Nelson, Frank Nelson, Miss Agnes Nelson, Patrick McCleary, Francis McCleary, M. J. Tierney, Leonard Tierney, Mrs. Agnes Williams, John Nelson, Mrs. E. H. Burge, Mrs. J. Brown, Miss Agnes Higgins, Barre, Mrs. Nora English, Lawrence, Mass.—St. Johnsbury

Fire at Claremont.

Claremont, N. H., Nov. 13.—This town visited early this morning by a fire that for a time threatened the business part of the town with destruction, and did result in the burning of Huntley's stable, a two and a half story wooden structure sixty feet wide a hundred feet long, and caused a loss of $15,000.

The fire was discovered about midnight by Officer Cole, who was on watch about the building in which there was a chimney fire at about 5:30 last night.
This was extinguished, and watch had been kept lest further damage should be done by its breaking out again. Up to 11:30 o'clock there were no signs of fire, but shortly after there was a burst of flame in the opposite end of the building and in a short time it was in ruins.

A brisk wind was blowing and the sparks flew far and wide, and so great was the danger that three alarms were sounded and help was summoned from West Claremont and White River Junction.

The stable was situated in rear of Union and Hunt blocks, which were seriously threatened and the occupants of the Heller block moved out as did the tenants in other threatened buildings.

PURITAN STOCK AND RACE SUICIDE

Says Fifty-six Churches of But One Child Each in Year.

Boston, Nov. 14.—In a paper on "The Perpetuation of the Church," read at the union conference of the Congregational churches of Boston and vicinity, the Rev. G. L. Cady of Dorchester, declared that the Puritan stock is committing race suicide.

"I find," he said, "fifty-six churches which boast of a single child each for last year and sixty-three which reported twelve children." "Congregational families have ceased to perpetuate themselves. The days when the family came to church and filled one or two pews, as in our youth, are gone, and in their place we look in vain for the children in the church or in the home."

"When the Puritan stock commits race suicide the Puritan church must also follow the path of involuntary hard-kiri."

A PREMATURE EXPLOSION.

One Poultry Laborer Loses Sight of Eyes—Another Suffers Broken Leg.

Rutland, Nov. 14.—Because of the premature explosion of a blast in the J. B.
Wheeler & Son slate quarry at Poulney late Thursday, William Hannon has a broken leg, and Henry Jones probably will lose the sight of one eye. Other quarrymen were slightly injured. The men were in a pit loading a hole with dynamite when the cartridge exploded.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Haircide, the new scalp antiseptic. Haircide destroys the germ that cuts the scalp off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfect healthy condition. Mr. Mainst, in St.
Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was an early bald. In less than a month Haircide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an interesting, and in six weeks he had a normal suff of hair. Sold by leading druggists.
